

Pedro Duro

Partner

Criminal, Administrative Offenses and Compliance Litigation and Arbitration

pedro.duro@csassociados.pt

Pedro Duro is a Partner in the Litigation and Arbitration, Criminal, Administrative Offences and Compliance practices. With more than two decades of experience, his practice focuses on sanctions frameworks in a wide range of sectors, both from a preventive perspective (regulation and compliance) as well as in a procedural context, in the relationship with administrative bodies, courts or other entities, public or private, national or international, with inspective functions or disciplinary powers. More recently his practice has also included Sports Law. In addition to his practice as a lawyer and a brief period teaching Criminal Law at the University of Lisbon School of Law, he was also jurist at the Portuguese Securities Market Commission, Deputy Director of the Ministry of Justice Legal Policy and Planning Office and Inspector General of the General Inspectorate for the Agriculture, Sea, Environment and Territorial Planning.

Education

1997:

Law Degree, Faculty of Law, University of Lisbon

Languages

English

Memberships

Portuguese Bar Association

Angolan Bar Association (with registration suspended at his request)

Fórum Penal - Associação de Advogados Penalistas

European Criminal Bar Association

International Bar Association