Maria Castelos divides her practice between Banking and Finance, especially on acquisition, project and structured finance deals, and M&A/Private Equity and Capital Markets, which allows her to take a holistic approach to the advice she gives to Clients, with a deep understanding of the different angles of a deal. She has a long standing experience in advising corporations, asset managers, investors and lenders across different industry sectors, most recently with a particular focus on banking and insurance, infrastructure, aviation, energy, water and telecommunications. With more than thirty years' of experience, she has been consistently recognised in the market as one of the leading practitioners in her main areas of practice.
